

English lesson in the foreign language laboratory*General competence:

1. Cognitive - is concerned with finding out new information, understanding and analyzing new things.
2. Personal - self-confident, not afraid to search, ask, make mistakes, speak, communicate.
3. Social - a conscious and responsible member of the community, who respects other persons, who learns to communicate and cooperate properly with others.
4. Creativity - able to apply new knowledge and information, improvise and bring new ideas and implement them. Can ask and answer, communicate with the interlocutor, create a monologue.
5. Digital skills - able to work with digital programs.

Tasks of the lesson:

1. Adapt and use language laboratory equipment.
2. Use the equipment to perform the monologue task.

Facilities: Language laboratory equipment.

Course of the lesson:

1. The lesson takes place in the classroom of the language laboratory.
2. Pupils are given a task.
3. Students perform a speaking task using the equipment. The result is recorded and remains in the digit.

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Information Technologies

Task: Talk on the given topic. Look at the chart and answer the questions below.

Survey “Would you like to study Information Technologies (IT)?”

- What information is presented in the chart? Describe the statistical data.
- Would you like to become an expert in the field of Information Technologies (IT)? Why / Why not? Give at least two reasons to explain your attitude.
- In your opinion, why is it important for every person to have some basic IT skills? Give at least two arguments to support your view.
- In your opinion, what personal characteristics are important for an IT specialist?
- Would you agree with the idea that very young children in kindergartens should start using IT?